Roger Jones

Roger first began composing, so as to involve as many as possible in music-making and in telling bible stories and Christian truths in a fun and accessible way. Further Musicals followed with 'Stargazers', 'Apostle', 'David', 'A Grain of Mustard Seed', 'Saints Alive' and 'Greater than Gold'.

Just prior to the publication of 'From Pharaoh to Freedom' in 1984, Roger gave up teaching to become involved in full-time Christian Music. In addition to writing and performing musicals, Roger also directs Christian Music Ministries, (CMM) who now publish his material. CMM lead music workshops, conferences, courses and seminars about worship, praise and renewal throughout this country and abroad, as well as running a mail order service supplying music and worship resources.

Further musicals have followed with 'While Shepherds Watched', 'Away in a Manger', 'Mary Magdalene', and 'Jairus' Daughter' written in 1992 to celebrate the Girls' Brigade Centenary celebrations. 'Angel Voices' came next, and then 'Pharisee', the story of Nicodemus. In 1999, Kevin Mayhew Ltd published the 'Roger Jones Hymn Collection', containing all of Roger's new Hymn-tune settings, some never published before.

In 1999 CMM published Roger's musical 'Snakes & Ladders' which toured England in 1999 & 2000. In 2001 he presented it in Canada, Scotland and the Channel Islands. June 2001 saw the publication the 'Roger Jones Christmas Collection', which contained 25 new seasonal songs and carols. He has also written various collections of worship songs which he uses in his on-going itinerant ministry.

2002 saw the release of 'Wildfire', the story of St Stephen, and this musical toured UK (2002-03) and in 2004 Roger presented it in India & Canada, as well as touring with it in Scotland, Guernsey, Isle of Wight and Bognor Regis!

In 2005 came the biggest project so far, 'JAIL BREAK' - Paul in Philippi, Acts 16. This musical was launched in October 2005 in Birmingham, introduced by the Archbishop of York John Sentamu, followed by the first UK Tour. 2006 had two more Tours, culminating in a massed choir production on Saturday 22 July

'ROCK', the story of Simon Peter is the latest Musical. It premiered in November 2008.

In 2009 there were further ROCK Tours in March, April, June & October, with a massed choirs finale at the Birmingham Symphony Hall on 14 November 2009.
