God who in Jesus calls us -
open hearts and minds to your invitation.
God of the pilgrim way - be our companion day by day.
God of the still, small voice - teach us to pray.
Grant that in our calling, our following, our pilgrimage,
we may see your kingdom of truth and peace -
and delight to bring others to your love.
We make this prayer through Jesus, the Lord.
(The "Follow" Prayer)

God of generosity, whose Son Jesus gathers us as one around the table of rejoicing;
be with us as we gather in his name.
Give us hope, encouragement, unity, expectancy,
and, by our time together,
draw us closer to one another and to you.
We make this prayer through Jesus,
the Lord.
(The "Gather" Prayer)

The Prayer Diary - April to June 2023

The main part of this Prayer Diary covers the quarter from Sunday 26th March to Saturday 24th June, week by week, under the following headings:

- Anglican - A bidding for each day, taken from the Anglican Cycle of Prayer and updated as fully and accurately as possible, so that we can pray with confidence with and for the Anglican Communion worldwide.
- Hereford - A bidding for each day, featuring each quarter half of the deaneries and benefices of our diocese, along with diocesan organisations, areas of work, and officers.
- Porvoo - This weekly bidding pairs the Lutheran churches of the Nordic and Baltic areas and the Anglican churches of the British Isles and of Spain and Portugal, which have signed the Porvoo Declaration recognising each others' ministries. Also included is the Latvian Church, which has not yet taken a decision on signing the Declaration, and the Church of Denmark, which has not signed but wishes to develop links with the churches which have signed.
- The Wider View - Biddings and promptings for prayer relating to world mission and development, including our own World Church links, among them our companion links with the Kirchenkreis Nürnberg in Germany, and the Tanzanian dioceses of Tanga, Dar es Salaam, Masasi and Newala.
- This Week and Today - Focuses for prayer during the week, on themes and issues in healthcare, the community, education and the changing seasons, along with events, meetings etc from the Diocesan calendar.
- Prayer - A prayer or reflection appropriate to the week.

Please send entries for the next edition which covers the quarter July to September 2023 to me at wkrowell@btinternet.com - clearly marked in the subject area as Prayer Diary. The more I know about events and activities, the more accurate and focused our prayer biddings can be. Please also let me know if you spot any mistakes or omissions - they do happen, alas, but I will always do my best to make sure this Diary is as accurate as possible!

SUNDAY 26th March: 5th of Lent - Passion Sunday (Passiontide begins)
Anglican	The Anglican Church of South America, Most Revd Nick Drayson, Presiding Bishop.
Hereford	Pray for all that encourages and nurtures vocation within our Diocese, and for those who advise, discern and mentor, helping people to seriously consider their sense of God's call to ministries of various kinds, and to access the training and experience they need.
Porvoo	Ireland : Armagh, Archbishop John McDowell; Denmark : Funen, Bishop Tine Lindhardt.
The Wider View	Pray for world peace, and for every community where division and violence are ruining lives. As the war in Ukraine continues, pray for those caught up in a war they have not sought or provoked, and that their courage and resilience may hold firm.
This Week	World Theatre Day (27th March) is celebrated to raise awareness about the importance of theatre arts and their important role in entertainment, and to highlight how they can be used to foster peace and economic development. The theme this and every year is "Theatre and a Culture of Peace." Give thanks for drama as a means of opening and educating minds and encouraging awareness of and response to the issues of the day. 30th March is World Bipolar Day: this condition affects around one in fifty people in the UK, and the day aims to raise awareness and counter the stigma that can attach to mental illness. This year the theme has to do with community kindness. Pray for all who live with this condition. Saturday is All Fool's Day. It's an opportunity for fun, and a time to be careful not to be tricked yourself - but Paul described himself and his companions as "fools for Christ's sake" (1 Cor 4.10); may we too have the courage to be fools for Christ, daring to live in a way that isn't hooked on possessions and on the conventions of the world. From this Sunday we enter Passiontide. We honour Jesus as he accepts the way of the cross, and seek to travel with him on that road. Lent has been a time to "deny ourselves, take up our cross, and follow him." May our lives mirror and convey his self-giving and self-offering love. Clocks go forward this Sunday and British Summer Time begins. The weather may or may not play ball, but as we see the emerging beauties of Spring in the world around us, may we give thanks for the wonder and the richness of God's creation. This perhaps is also a good time to commit ourselves afresh to value and conserve the environment around us. Pray that as churches we may take a lead in reducing energy use and living more sustainably. Pray also for gardeners, as beds are dug, crops planted and seeds sown. Pray for all who work in market gardens, in our local garden centres and nurseries, and in the hospitality and tourism sector generally, as the new season begins.

Monday 27th March
Anglican	Rupert's Land (Rupert's Land, Canada) - Rt Revd Geoffrey Woodcroft.

Tuesday 28th March
Anglican	Rutana (Burundi) - Rt Revd Pontien Ribakare.
Hereford	The Parish Church: Pray for all who prepare our churches for worship, those who greet people as they arrive, help newcomers, and work to ensure that our buildings are clean, well-presented and safe for all.
Today	Rural Deans of both Archdeaconries meet in Hereford.
Wednesday 29th March
Anglican	Ruvuma (Tanzania) - Rt Revd Raphael Haule.
Hereford	The Parish Church: Pray for tower captains and bell ringers, and for the training of new ringers. Pray that every tower may ring for the coronation.
Today	Bishop's Study Day at Ludlow: "How to Pray" (with Pete & Sammy Grieg)
Thursday 30th March: John Donne, priest and poet
Anglican	Ruwenzori (Uganda) - Rt Revd Reuben Kisengo.
Hereford	The Parish Church: Pray for all who assist with the celebration and administration of the Eucharist, and those who help ensure that people unable to receive communion in church may do so within their own homes.
Friday 31st March: John Donne, priest and poet
Anglican	East Ruwenzori (Uganda) - Rt Revd George Turyasingura.
Hereford	The Parish Church: Give thanks for our churches as places where the wider community can gather to celebrate at joyful times, or to mourn at times of tragedy or shared sorrow. Pray for prayer corners and other quiet places, and that our churches may be places of welcome for all who seek refuge.
Saturday 1st April: Frederick Denison Maurice, priest
Anglican	South Rwenzori (Uganda) - Rt Rev Jackson Nzerebende Tembo.
Hereford	The Parish Church: Pray for all that enables the worship we offer to be joyful, attractive and relevant, and for all who help to plan and lead worship, especially as we approach Holy Week and Easter.
Today	"Exploring Prayer" at Craven Arms.
Prayer  On being a fool for Christ	"He is no fool who gives what he cannot keep, to gain that which he cannot lose." May I live my life, Lord, according to this principle, even if in the eyes of others I may seem a fool. Help me never to be turned from your way of generous love, and to bear a constant witness to the Gospel of Christ. May I be ready to accept taunts and hardships and rejection, for in you I find the pearl that is beyond price. Help me to share your love in all I think and say and do, to the glory of your holy name.

SUNDAY 2nd April: Palm Sunday
Anglican	Episcopal Church of South Sudan - Most Revd Justin Badi Arama.
Hereford	Ledbury Deanery : Rural Dean – to be confirmed ; Lay Co-Chair – Kevin Hewison; Sub-Warden of Readers – Chris Blanchard.
Porvoo	Sweden : Uppsala, Archbishop Martin Modéus, Bishop Karin Johannesson; Wales : Llandaff, Bishop Mary Stallard (bishop elect).
The Wider View	Pray for girls and women in Afghanistan increasingly denied access to what we would consider basic human rights, including access to education and opportunity, and to freedom of expression. Pray for the safety of those who bravely speak out and protest.
This Week	Pray for the various events of Holy Week. May we place the cross of Christ at the centre of our life and action, as the sign of a love that cannot be ended or beaten, that is for all, and gives everything of itself that we may live. Pray too for choirs and musicians preparing and performing music for this Holy Week and for our Easter celebration. Pray for ecumenical Acts of Witness, pilgrimage walks and other similar events taking place this week, especially on Good Friday. Pray too for events for children and families, such as Messy Easter. On Wednesday the Chrism Eucharist takes place at the Cathedral. Give thanks for the sacramental ministry of the priesthood, and for this service as a time to renew our commitment to whatever ministry we are called to, and to offer ourselves afresh in God's service and as Christ's disciples. April is kept as Stress Awareness Month: pray for all who suffer from stress and related illnesses, for understanding, support and therapy - and, where needed, safe refuge. April is also a month when we are asked to focus on Bowel Cancer. Huge strides have been made in treating this cancer, but too often fear or embarrassment mean that people put off reporting symptoms. Pray for greater awareness and that people may be more ready to seek help. World Health Day is kept on Friday, taking the theme of "Health for all", and celebrating its 75th anniversary. Called by the World Health Organisation, the day challenges us to imagine a world in which clean air, water and food are available to all, and economies are focused on health and wellbeing. Pray for those places where present health provision falls well short of such aims. On Holy Saturday (Easter Eve), may we feel something of the desolation felt by the first disciples and followers of Jesus, as the man in whom they saw the light of God's love is laid, lifeless, in the tomb, and as they reproach themselves for having allowed this to happen. Pray too for the holy places of the Holy Land, and for all who visit as pilgrims.

Pray for all our Easter worship, for our outreach and welcome to those who come specially to our churches, and those visiting over the holiday weekend, and for all who in flowers and music and artistry make our church buildings a tribute to our risen Lord and our worship within them a gift of joyful and heartfelt praise. This is Parkinson's Awareness Week, which aims to increase media coverage of this condition, and to improve awareness. The greater the coverage the more people know what it is like to live with the disease, or to care for somebody who has it. Pray for those who live with this disease, for carers and families, treatment and therapy, and for local Parkinson's clubs providing social support and raising funds. Pray for all who take on voluntary tasks and responsibilities within our churches and communities. They may not be aware of doing great things, but the small things they do form a vital part of what links communities together and keeps things working well for the common good. Give thanks for initiatives like food banks, warm hubs and coffee and chat sessions that have helped people get through the winter - many of which will continue to be important through the spring and summer too. Pray for our outreach to the residential and nursing homes that serve our communities, and pray for staff, residents and those who visit as volunteers. This is the UN Decade on Ecosystem Restoration: pray that we may take seriously the urgency of the task, and the reality of climate change. Anselm, Abbot of Bec, became Archbishop of Canterbury in 1093, and was twice exiled during his archbishopric for championing the rights of the Church against the authority of the king. He was greatly admired for his learning and for the austere simplicity of his life. Pray for the work today of those who study and teach theology, especially those who, like Anselm, encourage us to reflect on the meaning of the cross as a place of atonement. Give thanks for the many footpaths and bridleways that enable access to the countryside (and for town footpath routes too), especially at this loveliest time of the year. Pray for those who lead organised walks, for walking groups and clubs, and for those who, as footpath wardens etc, look after paths and stiles, and make sure they are clear and safe. And at this time of the year, with young lambs in the fields, pray we may respect those who farm the land and use footpaths with care and sensitivity. Pray for the agricultural markets that serve our communities, for auctioneers and auction staff and all who work in them. Pray too for local farmer's markets and farm shops, enabling direct sales into the local community, and for the purchaser to know the origin of the foods they buy. Pray for those who enjoy knitting, sewing and other crafts of this sort, and for "knit and natter" groups and similar enterprises that help people to meet up and enjoy time together. As the summer term gets under way, pray for our schools at a time of change and stress, and for administrators, senior teachers and governing bodies, many of whom are faced with deficit budgets and funding gaps.

Some of them have no access to alternative “safe and legal” routes. Pray that those who are fleeing from intolerable situations in their own lands may find safety and refuge, and not be turned away.
This Week	Sunday is St George’s Day so far as most of the country is concerned, though in the liturgical calendar (see below) it is transferred to Monday. Pray that we have a pride in our country that embraces its traditions of tolerance, faith, the love of peace, mutual support and a concern for the welfare of our neighbour. St Mark’s Day on Tuesday prompts prayer of thanksgiving for all who tell the story of Jesus, and that we might find effective ways of sharing today the story of saving love that Mark and the other Evangelists have given us. Christina Rossetti, remembered on Thursday, wrote many compelling poems rooted in a deep and trusting faith. Give thanks for all who in verse and song share with us the story of their faith. MS Awareness Week begins on Monday. Pray for all who are living with this disease, and for their care and support, and for research into the disease. This week is also World Immunisation Week, with a particular focus on the immunisation of children. Pray for a better take-up of immunisation in parts of the developing world where there can be resistance to “western medicine”, and for cogent argument against the scepticism some have here following scare stories on social media. Tuesday is World Malaria Day, which aims to keep malaria high on the political agenda, mobilize additional resources, and empower communities. This disease continues to be a major killer, especially of the young, in much of the developing world - pray for the resources that are needed. Penguins are amazing birds, and World Penguin Day on Tuesday coincides with the average date on which Adelie Penguins in Antarctica start their northern migration. The day both celebrates penguins and aims to educate and encourage people to learn more about them and their environment, and the threats they face. Damage to the ecosystems they inhabit in fact damages us all, and the Antarctic especially should be a place of peaceful research rather than (for example) mineral exploitation: pray this may remain the case.

Pray this may be a step towards bringing this abhorrent practice to a close, and that churches may work together to help transform lives, families and communities, and restore autonomy, self-worth, freedom and prosperity.
This Week	The apostle Barnabas, commemorated on Sunday or Monday, has a name which means “Son of Encouragement”. Pray for the ways in which we can encourage one another as disciples, in our practice and in our prayer. Pray for those in our communities who feel lonely and isolated for whatever reason. Loneliness Awareness Week this week encourages supportive communities to form; loneliness is a natural human emotion, and we are hardwired to need social connections. By talking about loneliness in families and among friends, we can support ourselves and others. Richard Baxter, remembered on Wednesday, declined the offer of the See of Hereford, since to accept it would have required him to assent to aspects of the governance of the church which he could not approve. May we always be true to our higher allegiance to Christ, in our decisions and our work. Pray for all who live with diabetes in Diabetes Awareness Week. This condition can seriously impact both physical and mental health, but it is often not well understood by those who do not have it. Air pollution is one of the most important environmental health risks - pray we may do more to counter it. Saturday is the World Day to Combat Desertification and Drought. In many parts of our world dry lands are becoming deserts. The Sahara Desert is now some 10% larger than it was a century ago. Droughts are slow-onset disasters caused by climate change and water shortage, with 700 million people at risk of displacement by 2030. Pray for those who live in vulnerable places.

The Wider View	Poorer nations are impacted more severely by rising prices of fuel and basic commodities. Inflation in Tanzania is running at just under 5%, the highest for five years (though inflation of basic foodstuff prices is much higher) - but across much of Africa inflation is well into double figures, causing significant social stress. Pray for those who are struggling, and for churches, schools etc, as they struggle themselves but also seek to provide support.
This Week	On Father's Day (marked this Sunday) pray for all who have the gift and care of children; give thanks too that we can pray with confidence to God as Our Father. Tuesday is World Refugee Day, celebrating the strength and courage of those forced to flee their home country to escape conflict or persecution. It is an occasion to build empathy and understanding for the plight of refugees, and to recognize their resilience in rebuilding their lives. This week remembers Alban, first martyr of Britain, whose story dates from Roman times. Give thanks for the long legacy of Christian witness in these islands, and for those who like Alban have been faithful unto death. This week also commemorates John the Baptist, who prepared of the way for the Lord; pray that the Church of today may, like him, be fearless in speaking words of prophecy and challenge where change is needed. This is National Picnic Week, and though the June weather may not play ball, give thanks for the opportunities that do come our way to picnic in our summer countryside. Pray also for our local vineyards and wine producers. Wednesday is World Music Day; give thanks for our ability to make and enjoy music, for music as a means of conveying emotions and enabling praise, and for the ways in which those who compose music find inspiration in the natural rhythms and sounds of the earth and its creatures. This week includes both the Summer Solstice and the traditional Midsummer Day. Our Diocese includes many pre-Christian sites which were perhaps important for worship at these times, and may remind us to value the rhythm of the seasons, and that the desire to worship is planted deep within us. Pray for all who serve on our local and county councils, and for all who are active in local politics and community organisation.
