

Who will be teaching us?

CGH has two full-time teaching staff, one based in Gloucester and the other in Hereford, who teach across both centres. They are joined by local associate teachers from within the Dioceses, and also have the ability to call upon teaching colleagues from the other Cuddesdon pathways, thanks to zoom.

Revd Dr Roger Latham
Director and Core
Tutor (Gloucester)

Revd Dr Jacky Sewell
Assistant Director and Core Tutor (Hereford)

What do I need to do now?

If this new programme interests you, get in touch with your Diocesan ministry staff:

The Revd Dr Elizabeth Wild

Elizabeth.Wild@hereford.anglican.org

They will be glad to talk to you about whether this is the right study programme for you, and how it might deepen and enhance your lay ministry in your local parish.

They will also be able to discuss with you what you may need to do next, if you feel a vocational call to licensed ministry – lay or ordained – in the Church of England.

If you decide this is a good next step for you to take, enrolments for CGH will need to be completed by the second week in September. For all enquiries to CGH please contact their administrator:

A new, one year

INTRODUCTION TO CHRISTIAN MINISTRY COURSE

Beginning September 2022

Are you looking for a way to deepen your knowledge of the Bible and Christian ministry?

The Hereford Diocese, in partnership with CGH, is launching a new one-year course which will serve a variety of local parish ministry needs.

A new, one year, Introduction to Christian Ministry Course

Designed for lay leaders wanting a more solid footing for Christian ministry today, it is suited for:

- Messy Church or Open the Book leaders or helpers
- worship leaders
- members of local pastoral care teams
- keen Christians wanting to help others come to faith in Christ
- faithful Christians wanting to deepen their understanding of our Christian heritage

Who is running the course?

This is a partnership between the Diocese and our local theological training provider – CGH.

Who is CGH?

Cuddesdon Gloucester and Hereford (CGH) is a member of the Ripon College Cuddesdon family of ministry training pathways, training women and men, locally, for ordination as priests and deacons, as well as training Licensed Lay Ministers (Readers).

Over the past few years CGH has been extending its training for parish leaders and youth interns in both dioceses (Hereford and Gloucester) and all have benefitted hugely from learning alongside one another.

CGH brings a wide variety of people together into a single learning community. People come from all walks of life, representing a broad spectrum of age, education, spiritual tradition and ministry experience, enabling rich conversations about our common Christian faith.

What topics will be taught?

The course will be run during term time i.e. one night a week for 30 weeks, with a half-term break coinciding with schools' half-term.

- Introduction to Prayer, Theology and Doctrine (5 weeks)
- Introduction to Mission, Ministry and Evangelism (5 weeks)
- Introduction to the Bible (10 weeks)
- Introduction to Creating and Leading Worship (5 weeks)
- Introduction to People / Pastoral Skills (5 weeks)

Where will I be studying?

CGH has two teaching centres: at the Mascal Centre in Ludlow on Wednesday evening, and at Discover DeCrypt in Gloucester on Thursday evening. You can choose whichever centre is closest to you.

Will I get a certificate or qualification?

At the end of your study you will get a CGH certificate, listing the topics which you have studied.

You will also have the opportunity to register and complete the one year, fully-assessed 60 credit Durham University Foundation Award in Theology, Ministry and Mission.

If you are also exploring a vocation to licensed ministry this can then convert into a DU Certificate or Diploma – the national Church of England ministry qualification.

What will this cost me?

Anyone who is discerned by their vicar and PCC to enhance their local lay ministry will have their course fees paid for by the Diocese.

If you are not involved in ministry in your church, but are wanting to simply know more about the Bible and our Christian heritage, you are welcome to apply to CGH to enrol in a module or two, at your own expense. NB this is at the discretion of CGH and is subject to their enrolment process.
