

Herefordshire Community Network

Support for Ukraine – information for guests

English Heritage

English Heritage has an incredible range of sites across the UK including Stonehenge, Hadrian's

Wall and Battle Abbey. They have announced that they are offering free entry to all their sites across the UK. No pre-booking is required and individuals just need to advise their site staff on arrival in order to gain free admission. Their sites represent some of the 'best of Britain'; places whose age, beauty and atmosphere can provide comfort in an uncertain world. For details of all their locations visit the

STONEHENGE
The story of our ancestors

HADRIAN'S WALL
Face the final frontier

DOVER CASTLE
A mighty fortress website or scan the QR code.

Places to visit | English Heritage \(english-heritage.org.uk\)

Free museums and art galleries

Visiting museums is important because it expands your horizons and lets you experience changes in perspectives and lets you learn more about humanity, history, and various cultures from the rest of the world. It also inspires and stimulates new ideas,

Herefordshire Community Network

Support for Ukraine – information for guests

recharging and providing new perspectives.

Museums and galleries, such as the British Museum, Natural History Museum, Science Museum, Tate Modern, Tate Britain, and the National Gallery, Natural History and Science museums are free to visit and spend a lovely time with your family when it is cold or rains outside.

Go to the website or scan the QR code to see the list of free museums you can visit in England.

Free museums in England: All 200 museums to visit \(September 2024\)
(whichmuseum.co.uk)

National parks

The United Kingdom has a total of 15 national parks, with nine in England, three in Wales, and two in Scotland. These national parks offer outdoor activities, walking and cycling routes, and camping opportunities. Some of the notable national parks include the Lake District, Snowdonia, and the Cairngorms.

We can all be more outside. More healthy, more creative, more in touch with the natural world and each other visiting National Parks. Go to the website or scan the QR code to find Natural Park you would like to visit with your family or friends.

Parks - National Parks

Herefordshire Community Network

Support for Ukraine – information for guests

Beaches in the UK

The UK has a disproportionately large number of beaches. And given the varying topology and geology of Britain, these beaches all have their own unique character. That said, we love all of Britain's beaches! Whether you are looking for a family friendly beach with all the facilities, a world-class surf spot or a beach to yourself you will definitely enjoy exploring the beaches and have a lovely time.

Go to the website or scan the QR code

34 Best Beaches in the UK for 2024, According To Time Out Editors

Free and cheap days out for families on Universal Credit at attractions across the UK

If you getting Universal Credit or other benefits and finding it hard to afford fun days out. It's tough for people with low incomes right now. Ticket prices can be really high, and even when they give discounts, it's often not much off.

Herefordshire Community Network

Support for Ukraine – information for guests

There is a list of 60 places like museums, theme parks, zoos and theatres where you can get in for cheap or even for free if you're on Universal Credit or other benefits. Some of these places even let you bring other people with you at a discount, making for an affordable family day out.

Go to the website or scan the QR code

Universal Credit Days Out from £1 \(2024 + UK map\) \(museummum.com\)

Information correct as of 7.10.2024